Fee of 10 cents until time of arrived at Yokohama and will sail for this port to morrow. An advertisement in another column invites gentlemen interested in the Hongkong Amatour Athletic Sports to attend a meet> ing to be held at the Hongkong Club tomorrow evening, at 6 p.m. A CRUEL assault was committed on a jinricksha coolie on Saturday night about nine; o'clock. The perpetrators struck the cooling over the right eye and made off. The military police and the street police were soon made aware of the occurrence, but no positive proof could be obtained of the assailanta of the coolie, who bled so profusely that he was sent to the Government Civil Hospital, where his wound was dressed.

A second boating contest between crews selected from the members of the Victoria Recreation Club who had never rowed in a winning boat at a Regatta came off on Saturday afternoon. The original number of boats entered was five, but the crew of one afterwards withdrew because objection was made to a substitute whom they proposed to take into their boat for one of the men first chosen. The course was over the regular regatta one off the Kowloon shore, and the boats entered were the Rose, Leek, Shawrick and Kornblume. Two mishaps occurred to the boats on their way norces to the course, but the damage was repaired before the race started. A fairly good tart was made, the Shamrock taking the lead, ---the Rose and Kornblume being close behind with the Leek last. This order of things did not last long, however, for before the boats had covered a third of the distance, the Rose, the favourite boat, shot past the Shamrock, the stroke of which, Sassoon, soon after collapsed. Denison took Sasscon's place, but by this time the Leck had also passed the Shamrock. The Rose maintained the leading position to the finish the Leck came in second, and the Shamrock Noon.-Meeting of Shareholders of the third. The last-named was disqualified China Sugar Refining Co., Ltd., at the from taking third place, however, by changing its stroke and also fouling the Noon. -- French Mail leaves for Ports of Kornblume. I say, and I submit it to the old pupils of the Central School, that when a man has completed his studies for life, he has something else to look forward to, and I am gratified by the assurance that there is something being thought of by the pupils which shows they recognise their education does. not leave off when they leave the Central School. I hope, and I have been somewhat instrumental in giving effect to that hope in the Straits Settlements, that the scholars of the Central School will associate themsolves together and endeavour to from a kind of what we should call exprit de corps —and I hope they will excuse me for saying so-to promote association amongst themselves. And for that purpose nothing could be more useful than the establishment of a library of good useful works amongst them. (Applause.) Having subscribed in order to found a scholarship, in the name of their
